DECISION¹

On August 14, 2013, James A. Fields ("Petitioner") filed a petition pursuant to the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.² 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006). In an amended Petition³ filed on December 10, 2014, Petitioner alleged that an influenza ("flu") vaccination administered on December 2, 2011 caused "significant aggravation of [his] transverse myelitis or myelopathy." On February 1, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner.

² The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program is set forth in Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006) (Vaccine Act or the Act). All citations in this decision to individual sections of the Vaccine Act are to 42 U.S.C.A. § 300aa.

³ In his initial Petition, Petitioner alleged that the influenza vaccine administered on December 2, 2011 caused him to develop transverse myelitis.

On April 20, 2016, Petitioner filed a motion fees and costs. In his motion, Petitioner requests compensation for $68,029.08 in attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner represents that he has not personally incurred any fees or costs in pursuit of his vaccine claim. See General Order No. 9 Statement, filed April 26, 2016.

On April 29, 2016, Respondent filed a response to Petitioner's motion in which she states that she "does not object to the overall amount sought, as it is not an unreasonable amount to have been incurred for proceedings in this case to date."

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). The undersigned finds that this petition was brought in good faith and that there existed a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). Further, the proposed amount seems reasonable and appropriate. Accordingly, the undersigned hereby awards the amount of $68,029.08, in the form of a check made payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Gary Alvin Bryant.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.
